Romans 13:12 The day is at hand. Therefore let us cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light.

August 30, 2007 was an infamously dark day in Iowa as Polk County judge Robert Hanson declared Iowa's ban on same sex marriage unconstitutional, paving the way for same-sex couples to marry for the first time in our state's history.

In the aftermath of this ruling, which is being appealed, we as Christians must take this opportunity to stand for truth. We encourage you to join forces with us as we work for a constitutional amendment to the Iowa Constitution defining marriage as a union between a man and a woman. Because of the liberties that activist judges such as Hanson have taken, this action has become a necessity.

You can be part of this effort by simply going to our website, www.iowachristian.com and clicking on the link to our petition. You may also feel free to call our office to request petitions be sent to you. Our goal is to present the leadership of the Iowa House and Senate with 100,000 signatures prior to the 2008 legislative session. Completed petitions may be mailed to our office.

It is our hope that Christians all over our state mobilize and heed the call to preserve marriage for what God intended it to be. We also encourage all pastors and church leaders to address this issue head-on, to be unafraid to speak the truth, and to ultimately proclaim the Gospel of Christ. Let us, as Romans 13:12 states, cast off all darkness and put on the armor of light, which is Jesus Christ. Let us go forth with boldness and truth, but never without His love and grace.
